We are excited to welcome you back to the opening concert of CMSC's 23rd season! Enjoy a program largely made up of music we would have performed on the 2019/20 season finale. You'll hear the world premiere of Metamorphosis by harpist/composer/arranger Maurice DRAUGHN, written for the Eason Trio. The program also includes Quintet for Strings in One Movement by American composer Charles LOEFFLER. Unlike the typical string quintet, this work is written for three violins, viola and cello. And you won't want to miss Brian Bowman performing in the famous MOZART Clarinet Quintet!

CMSC has presented the work of this African American composer in past concerts and we are particularly excited to perform her Piano Quintet in A Minor this season! On the second half of the program the Rela Percussion Quartet will perform selections with influences from African, Arabic, Caribbean, and Indian music, as well as jazz and marching percussion. Along with western and global percussion instruments, the group draws sound from objects ranging from metal pipe to flower pots.

The April program salutes the American and the French flags, celebrating music by composers from both countries! Alta Boover, John Madison and Mary Siciliano will perform the intensely beautiful Quatre Poèmes, Op. 5 by American Charles LOEFFLER. On the French side, the Sonata for violin and piano by Francis POULENC and Sonata for 2 violins and piano by Darius MILHAUD will round out this concert. Both pieces are exceptional but somehow rarely performed.
